On June 25, 2019 at 7pm the Board of Prince Charles Community League will present a 'Special Resolution' to amend our Bylaws. You are encouraged to review the draft bylaws online at the Prince Charles Community league website or contact Charlie Senior if you would like to review paper copies. The meeting will be held at the Edmonton Native Healing Center 101-11813 123 St NW.

On behalf of the Community League, I would like to extend heartfelt thanks to all the volunteers who worked our recent casino held this past May 9th & 10th. With so many demands on your time, we very much appreciate your commitment and assistance in what is the biggest fundraiser for the league. We hope too that you enjoyed, despite the long / late hours, the opportunity to connect with each other. When the casino funds roll in, we'll confirm the amount that your time & effort added to our coffers, but we can expect it to be in the range of $70,000.00 to $80,000.00.

Again, thank you!!

Lise Gamache

Director At Large (Casino Chairperson)

Prince Charles' NEIGHBOURHOOD WATCH

Graffiti means different things to different people. For some, it is an appealing form of street art and it provides opportunities for artistic expression. For others, it's an ugly array of spray paint. There is a big difference between graffiti as an art form and graffiti vandalism, primarily "tagging". Street art is planned, has permission from the property owner and takes the form of intricate and Beautiful Murals. However, 94% of all graffiti in Edmonton is "tagging"; vandals spray painting their names on someone else's property without the owner's consent.

- Graffiti vandals gain their reputations based on 'street cred'.
- This means the longer graffiti is visible, the more street 'cred' the vandal gets, encouraging more graffiti in more locations. The materials used for graffiti are almost always stolen, which adds another layer of criminality to graffiti vandalism.

Let's work together to bring more art and less vandalism.

What You Can Do To Prevent Tagging?

Remove It Fast

By removing graffiti tagging quickly, the less likely it is that taggers will return. Paint over the graffiti or apply for the Professional Graffiti Cleaning Program as soon as graffiti tagging appears.

Report It

Using the Edmonton 311 App, report graffiti tagging on public property so it can be removed.

Protect Your Property

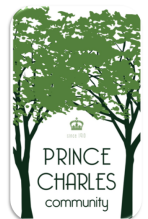

Crime Prevention Through Environmental Design strategies can make your property more secure and prevent acts of vandalism.

Keep it Clean

Broken fences, graffiti vandalism, parking lot litter, overgrown landscapes and poor lighting invite delinquent behaviour. Keeping your property clean and maintained has a positive effect on the community and helps deter graffiti vandalism.

Let's work together to bring more art and less vandalism...
